

The Westminster Larger Catechism in Modern English

Q. 1. What is the chief and highest end of man?

A. Man's chief and highest end is to glorify God,<sup>1</sup> and fully to enjoy him forever.<sup>2</sup>

Q. 2. How does it appear that there is a God?

A. The very light of nature in man, and the works of God, declare plainly that there is a God;<sup>3</sup> but his word and Spirit only do sufficiently and effectually reveal him unto men for their salvation.<sup>4</sup>

Q. 3. What is the Word of God?

A. The holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testament are the Word of God,<sup>5</sup> the only rule of faith and obedience.<sup>6</sup>

Q. 4. How does it appear that the Scriptures are the Word of God?

A. The Scriptures manifest themselves to be the Word of God, by their majesty<sup>7</sup> and purity;<sup>8</sup> by the consent of all the parts,<sup>9</sup> and the scope of the whole, which is to give all glory to God;<sup>10</sup> by their light and power to convince and convert sinners, to comfort and build up believers unto salvation:<sup>11</sup> but the Spirit of God bearing witness by

Q. 5. What do the Scriptures principally teach?

A. The Scriptures principally teach, what man is to believe concerning God, and what duty God requires of man.<sup>2</sup>

What Man Ought to Believe Concerning God

Q. 6. What do the Scriptures make known of God?

A. The Scriptures make known what God is,<sup>3</sup> the persons in the Godhead,<sup>4</sup> his decrees,<sup>5</sup> and the execution of his decrees.<sup>6</sup>

Q. 7. What is God?

A. God is a Spirit,<sup>7</sup> in and of himself infinite in being,<sup>8</sup> glory,<sup>9</sup> blessedness,<sup>10</sup> and perfection;<sup>11</sup> all-sufficient,<sup>12</sup> eternal,<sup>13</sup> unchangeable,<sup>14</sup> incomprehensible,<sup>15</sup> everywhere present,<sup>16</sup> almighty,<sup>17</sup> knowing all things,<sup>18</sup> most wise,<sup>19</sup> most holy,<sup>20</sup> most just,<sup>21</sup> most merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth.<sup>22</sup>

Q. 8. Are there more Gods than one?

A. There is but one only, the living and true God.<sup>1</sup>

Q. 9. How many persons are there in the Godhead?

A. There are three persons in the Godhead, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one true, eternal God, the same in substance, equal in power and glory; although distinguished by their personal properties.<sup>2</sup>

Q. 10. What are the personal properties of the three persons in the Godhead?

A. It is proper to the Father to beget the Son,<sup>3</sup> and to the Son to be begotten of the Father,<sup>4</sup> and to the Holy Spirit to proceed from the Father and the Son from all eternity.<sup>5</sup>

Q. 11. How does it appear that the Son and the Holy Spirit are God equal with the Father?

A. The Scriptures manifest that the Son and the Holy Spirit are God equal with the Father, ascribing unto them such names,<sup>6</sup> attributes,<sup>7</sup> works,<sup>8</sup> and worship,<sup>9</sup> as are proper to God only.

Q. 12. What are the decrees of God?

A. God's decrees are the wise, free, and holy acts of the counsel of his will,<sup>10</sup> whereby, from all eternity, he has, for his own glory, unchangeably foreordained whatsoever comes to pass in time,<sup>11</sup> especially concerning angels and men.

Q. 13. What has God especially decreed concerning angels and men?

A. God, by an eternal and immutable decree, out of his mere love, for the praise of his glorious grace, to be manifested in due time, has elected some angels to glory;<sup>12</sup> and in Christ has chosen some men

Q. 14. How does God execute his decrees?

A. God executes his decrees in the works of creation and providence, according to his infallible foreknowledge, and the free and immutable counsel of his own will.<sup>3</sup>

Q. 15. What is the work of creation?

A. The work of creation is that wherein God did in the beginning, by the word of his power, make of nothing the world, and all things therein, for himself, within the space of six days, and all very good.<sup>4</sup>

Q. 16. How did God create angels?

A. God created all the angels<sup>5</sup> spirits,<sup>6</sup> immortal,<sup>7</sup> holy,<sup>8</sup> excelling in knowledge,<sup>9</sup> mighty in power,<sup>10</sup> to execute his commandments, and to praise his name,<sup>11</sup> yet subject to change.<sup>12</sup>

Q. 17. How did God create man?

A. After God had made all other creatures, he created man male and female;<sup>13</sup> formed the body of the man of the dust of the ground,<sup>14</sup> and the woman of the rib of the man,<sup>15</sup> endued them with living, reasonable, and immortal souls;<sup>16</sup> made them after his own image,<sup>17</sup>

Q. 18. What are God's works of providence?

A. God's works of providence are his most holy,<sup>7</sup> wise,<sup>8</sup> and powerful preserving<sup>9</sup> and governing<sup>10</sup> all his creatures; ordering them, and all their actions,<sup>11</sup> to his own glory.<sup>12</sup>

Q. 19. What is God's providence towards the angels?

A. God by his providence permitted some of the angels, wilfully and irrecoverably, to fall into sin and damnation,<sup>13</sup> limiting and ordering that, and all their sins, to his own glory;<sup>14</sup> and established the rest in holiness and happiness;<sup>15</sup> employing them all,<sup>16</sup> at his pleasure, in the administrations of his power, mercy, and justice.<sup>17</sup>

Q. 20. What was the providence of God toward man in the estate in which he was created?

A. The providence of God toward man in the estate in which he was created, was the placing him in paradise, appointing him to dress it, giving him liberty to eat of the fruit of the earth;<sup>18</sup> putting the creatures under his dominion,<sup>19</sup> and ordaining marriage for his help;<sup>20</sup> affording him communion with himself;<sup>21</sup> instituting the

Q. 21. Did man continue in that estate wherein God at first created him?

A. Our first parents being left to the freedom of their own will, through the temptation of Satan, transgressed the commandment of God in eating the forbidden fruit; and thereby fell from the estate of innocence wherein they were created.<sup>5</sup>

Q. 22. Did all mankind fall in that first transgression?

A. The covenant being made with Adam as a public person, not for himself only, but for his posterity, all mankind descending from him by ordinary generation,<sup>6</sup> sinned in him, and fell with him in that first transgression.<sup>7</sup>

Q. 23. Into what estate did the fall bring mankind?

A. The fall brought mankind into an estate of sin and misery.<sup>8</sup>

Q. 24. What is sin?

A. Sin is any want of conformity unto, or transgression of, any law of God, given as a rule to the reasonable creature.<sup>9</sup>

Q. 25. Wherein consists the sinfulness of that estate into which man fell?

A. The sinfulness of that estate into which man fell, consists in the guilt of Adam's first sin,<sup>10</sup> the want of that righteousness wherein he was created, and the corruption of his nature, whereby he is utterly indisposed, disabled, and made opposite unto all that is spiritually good, and wholly inclined to all evil, and that continually;<sup>11</sup> which is commonly called original sin, and from which do proceed all actual transgressions.<sup>12</sup>

Q. 26. How is original sin conveyed from our first parents to their posterity?

A. Original sin is conveyed from our first parents to their posterity by natural generation, so as all that proceed from them in that way are conceived and born in sin.<sup>1</sup>

Q. 27. What misery did the fall bring upon mankind?

A. The fall brought upon mankind the loss of communion with God,<sup>2</sup> his displeasure and curse; so as we are by nature children of wrath,<sup>3</sup> bond slaves to Satan,<sup>4</sup> and justly liable to all punishments in this world, and that which is to come.<sup>5</sup>

Q. 28. What are the punishments of sin in this world?

A. The punishments of sin in this world are either inward, as blindness of mind,<sup>6</sup> a reprobate sense,<sup>7</sup> strong delusions,<sup>8</sup> hardness of heart,<sup>9</sup> horror of conscience,<sup>10</sup> and vile affections;<sup>11</sup> or outward, as the curse of God upon the creatures of our sakes,<sup>12</sup> and all other evils that befall us in our bodies, names, estates, relations, and employments;<sup>13</sup> together with death itself.<sup>14</sup>

Q. 29. What are the punishments of sin in the world to come?

A. The punishments of sin in the world to come, are everlasting separation from the comfortable presence of God, and most grievous torments in soul and body, without intermission, in hell-fire forever.<sup>15</sup>

Q. 30. Does God leave all mankind to perish in the estate of sin and misery?

A. God does not leave all men to perish in the estate of sin and misery,<sup>16</sup> into which they fell by the breach of the first covenant,

Q. 31. With whom was the covenant of grace made?

A. The covenant of grace was made with Christ as the second [last] Adam, and in him with all the elect as his seed.<sup>3</sup>

Q. 32. How is the grace of God manifested in the second covenant?

A. The grace of God is manifested in the second covenant, in that he freely provides and offers to sinners a Mediator,<sup>4</sup> and life and salvation by him;<sup>5</sup> and requiring faith as the condition to interest them in him,<sup>6</sup> promises and gives his Holy Spirit<sup>7</sup> to all his elect, to work in them that faith,<sup>8</sup> with all other saving graces;<sup>9</sup> and to enable them unto all holy obedience,<sup>10</sup> as the evidence of the truth of their faith<sup>11</sup> and thankfulness to God,<sup>12</sup> and as the way which he has appointed them to salvation.<sup>13</sup>

Q. 33. Was the covenant of grace always administered after one and the same manner?

A. The covenant of grace was not always administered after the same manner, but the administrations of it under the Old Testament were different from those under the New.<sup>14</sup>

Q. 34. How was the covenant of grace administered under the Old Testament?

A. The covenant of grace was administered under the Old Testament,

Q. 35. How is the covenant of grace administered under the New Testament?

A. Under the New Testament, when Christ the substance was exhibited, the same covenant of grace was and still is to be administered in the preaching of the Word,<sup>8</sup> and the administration of the sacraments of Baptism<sup>9</sup> and the Lord's Supper;<sup>10</sup> in which grace and salvation are held forth in more fulness, evidence, and efficacy, to all nations.<sup>11</sup>

Q. 36. Who is the Mediator of the covenant of grace?

A. The only Mediator of the covenant of grace is the Lord Jesus Christ,<sup>12</sup> who, being the eternal Son of God, of one substance and equal with the Father,<sup>13</sup> in the fullness of time became man,<sup>14</sup> and so was and continues to be God and man, in two entire distinct natures, and one person, forever.<sup>15</sup>

Q. 37. How did Christ, being the Son of God, become man?

Q. 38. Why was it requisite that the Mediator should be God?

A. It was requisite that the Mediator should be God, that he might sustain and keep the human nature from sinking under the infinite wrath of God, and the power of death;<sup>3</sup> give worth and efficacy to his sufferings, obedience, and intercession;<sup>4</sup> and to satisfy God's justice,<sup>5</sup> procure his favour,<sup>6</sup> purchase a peculiar people,<sup>7</sup> give his Spirit to them,<sup>8</sup> conquer all their enemies,<sup>9</sup> and bring them to everlasting salvation.<sup>10</sup>

Q. 39. Why was it requisite that the Mediator should be man?

A. Q. 41. Why was our Mediator called Jesus?

A. Our Mediator was called Jesus, because he saves his people from their sins.<sup>1</sup>

Q. 42. Why was our Mediator called Christ?

A. Our Mediator was called Christ, because he was anointed with the Holy Spirit above measure;<sup>2</sup> and so set apart, and fully furnished with all authority and ability,<sup>3</sup> to execute the offices of prophet,<sup>4</sup> priest,<sup>5</sup> and king of his church,<sup>6</sup> in the estate both of his humiliation and exaltation.

Q. 43. How does Christ execute the office of a prophet?

A. Christ executes the office of a prophet, in his revealing to the church,<sup>7</sup> in all ages, by his Spirit and Word,<sup>8</sup> in divers [various] ways of administration,<sup>9</sup> the whole will of God,<sup>10</sup> in all things concerning their edification and salvation.<sup>11</sup>

Q. 46. What was the estate of Christ's humiliation?

A. The estate of Christ's humiliation was that low condition, wherein he for our sakes, emptying himself of his glory, took upon him the form of a servant, in his conception and birth, life, death, and after his death, until his resurrection.<sup>9</sup>

Q. 47. How did Christ humble himself in his conception and birth?

A. Christ humbled himself in his conception and birth, in that, being from all eternity the Son of God, in the bosom of the Father, he was pleased in the fullness of time to become the son of man, made of a woman of low estate, and to be born of her; with divers [various] circumstances of more than ordinary abasement.<sup>10</sup>

Judas,<sup>1</sup> forsaken by his disciples,<sup>2</sup> scorned and rejected by the world,<sup>3</sup> condemned by Pilate, and tormented by his persecutors;<sup>4</sup> having also conflicted with the terrors of death, and the powers of darkness, felt and borne the weight of God's wrath,<sup>5</sup> he laid down his life an offering for sin,<sup>6</sup> enduring the painful, shameful, and cursed death of the cross.<sup>7</sup>

Q. 50. Wherein consisted Christ's humiliation after his death?

A. Christ's humiliation after his death consisted in his being buried,<sup>8</sup> and continuing in the state of the dead, and under the power of death till the third day;<sup>9</sup> which has been otherwise expressed in these words, He descended into hell.

Q. 51. What was the estate of Christ's exaltation?

A. The estate of Christ's exaltation comprehends his resurrection,<sup>10</sup> ascension,<sup>11</sup> sitting at the right hand of the Father,<sup>12</sup> and his coming again to judge the world.<sup>13</sup>

Q. 52. How was Christ exalted in his resurrection?

A. Christ was exalted in his resurrection, in that, not having seen corruption in death, (of which it was not possible for him to be held,)<sup>14</sup> and having the very same body in which he suffered, with the essential properties thereof,<sup>15</sup> (but without mortality, and other common infirmities belonging to this life,) really united to his soul,<sup>16</sup> he rose again from the dead the third day by his own power;<sup>17</sup> whereby he declared himself to be the Son of God,<sup>18</sup> to have satisfied

Q. 53. How was Christ exalted in his ascension?

A. Christ was exalted in his ascension, in that having after his resurrection often appeared unto and conversed with his apostles, speaking to them of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God,<sup>10</sup> and giving them commission to preach the gospel to all nations,<sup>11</sup> forty days after his resurrection, he, in our nature, and as our head,<sup>12</sup> triumphing over enemies,<sup>13</sup> visibly went up into the highest heavens, there to receive gifts for men,<sup>14</sup> to raise up our affections thither,<sup>15</sup> and to prepare a place for us,<sup>16</sup> where he himself is, and shall continue till his second coming at the end of the world.<sup>17</sup>

Q. 54. How is Christ exalted in his sitting at the right hand of God?

A. Christ is exalted in his sitting at the right hand of God, in that as God-man he is advanced to the highest favour with God the Father,<sup>18</sup> with all fullness of joy,<sup>19</sup> glory,<sup>20</sup> and power over all things in heaven and earth;<sup>21</sup> and does gather and defend his church, and subdue their enemies; furnishes his ministers and people with gifts and graces,<sup>1</sup> and makes intercession for them.<sup>2</sup>

Q. 55. How does Christ make intercession?

A. Christ makes intercession, by his appearing in our nature continually before the Father in heaven,<sup>3</sup> in the merit of his obedience and sacrifice on earth,<sup>4</sup> declaring his will to have it applied to all believers;<sup>5</sup> answering all accusations against them,<sup>6</sup> and procuring for them quiet of conscience, notwithstanding daily failings,<sup>7</sup> access with boldness to the throne of grace,<sup>8</sup> and acceptance of their persons<sup>9</sup> and services.<sup>10</sup>

Q. 56. How is Christ to be exalted in his coming again to judge the world?

A. Christ is to be exalted in his coming again to judge the world, in that he, who was unjustly judged and condemned by wicked men,<sup>11</sup> shall come again at the last day in great power,<sup>12</sup> and in the full manifestation of his own glory, and of his Father's, with all his holy angels,<sup>13</sup> with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet of God,<sup>14</sup> to judge the world in righteousness.<sup>15</sup>

Q. 57. What benefits has Christ procured by his mediation?

A. Christ, by his mediation, has procured redemption,<sup>16</sup> with all other benefits of the covenant of grace.<sup>17</sup>

Q. 59. Who are made partakers of redemption through Christ?

A. Redemption is certainly applied, and effectually communicated, to all those for whom Christ has purchased it;<sup>3</sup> who are in time by the Holy Spirit enabled to believe in Christ according to the gospel.<sup>4</sup>

Q. 60. Can they who have never heard the gospel, and so know not Jesus Christ, nor believe in him, be saved by their living according to the light of nature?

A. They who, having never heard the gospel,<sup>5</sup> know not Jesus Christ,<sup>6</sup> and believe not in him, cannot be saved,<sup>7</sup> be they never so diligent to frame their lives according to the light of nature,<sup>8</sup> or the laws of that religion which they profess;<sup>9</sup> neither is there salvation in any other, but in Christ alone,<sup>10</sup> who is the Saviour only of his body the church.<sup>11</sup>

Q. 61. Are all they saved who hear the gospel, and live in the church?

A. All that hear the gospel, and live in the visible church, are not saved; but they only who are true members of the church invisible.<sup>12</sup>

Q. 62. What is the visible church?

A. The visible church is a society made up of all such as in all ages and places of the world do profess the true religion,<sup>13</sup> and of their children.<sup>14</sup>

Q. 63. What are the special privileges of the visible church?

Q. 64. What is the invisible church?

A. The invisible church is the whole number of the elect, that have been, are, or shall be gathered into one under Christ the head.<sup>6</sup>

Q. 65. What special benefits do the members of the invisible church enjoy by Christ?

A. The members of the invisible church by Christ enjoy union and communion with him in grace and glory.<sup>7</sup>

Q. 66. What is that union which the elect have with Christ?

A. The union which the elect have with Christ is the work of God's grace,<sup>8</sup> whereby they are spiritually and mystically, yet really and inseparably, joined to Christ as their head and husband;<sup>9</sup> which is done in their effectual calling.<sup>10</sup>

Q. 67. What is effectual calling?

A. Effectual calling is the work of God's almighty power and grace,<sup>11</sup> whereby (out of his free and special love to his elect, and from nothing in them moving him thereunto)<sup>12</sup> he does, in his accepted time, invite and draw them to Jesus Christ, by his Word and Spirit;<sup>13</sup> savingly enlightening their minds,<sup>14</sup> renewing and powerfully determining their wills,<sup>15</sup> so as they (although in themselves dead in

Q. 68. Are the elect only effectually called?

A. All the elect, and they only, are effectually called;<sup>2</sup> although others may be, and often are, outwardly called by the ministry of the Word,<sup>3</sup> and have some common operations of the Spirit;<sup>4</sup> who, for their wilful neglect and contempt of the grace offered to them, being justly left in their unbelief, do never truly come to Jesus Christ.<sup>5</sup>

Q. 69. What is the communion in grace which the members of the invisible church have with Christ?

A. The communion in grace which the members of the invisible church have with Christ, is their partaking of the virtue of his mediation, in their justification,<sup>6</sup> adoption,<sup>7</sup> sanctification, and whatever else, in this life, manifests their union with him.<sup>8</sup>

Q. 70. What is justification?

A. Justification is an act of God's free grace unto sinners,<sup>9</sup> in which he pardons all their sins, accepts and accounts their persons righteous in his sight;<sup>10</sup> not for anything wrought in them, or done by them,<sup>11</sup> but only for the perfect obedience and full satisfaction of Christ, by God imputed to them,<sup>12</sup> and received by faith alone.<sup>13</sup>

Q. 71. How is justification an act of God's free grace?

A. Although Christ, by his obedience and death, did make a proper, real, and full satisfaction to God's justice in the behalf of them that are justified;<sup>14</sup> yet in as much as God accepts the satisfaction from a surety, which he might have demanded of them, and did

Q. 72. What is justifying faith?

A. Justifying faith is a saving grace,<sup>6</sup> wrought in the heart of a sinner by the Spirit<sup>7</sup> and Word of God,<sup>8</sup> whereby he, being convinced of his sin and misery, and of the disability in himself and all other creatures to recover him out of his lost condition,<sup>9</sup> not only assents to the truth of the promise of the gospel,<sup>10</sup> but receives and rests upon Christ and his righteousness, therein held forth, for pardon of sin,<sup>11</sup> and for the accepting and accounting of his person righteous in the sight of God for salvation.<sup>12</sup>

Q. 73. How does faith justify a sinner in the sight of God?

A. Faith justifies a sinner in the sight of God, not because of those other graces which do always accompany it, or of good works that are the fruits of it,<sup>13</sup> nor as if the grace of faith, or any act thereof, were imputed to him for his justification;<sup>14</sup> but only as it is an instrument by which he receives and applies Christ and his righteousness.<sup>15</sup>

Q. 75. What is sanctification?

A. Sanctification is a work of God's grace, whereby they whom God has, before the foundation of the world, chosen to be holy, are in time, through the powerful operation of his Spirit<sup>6</sup> applying the death and resurrection of Christ unto them,<sup>7</sup> renewed in their whole man after the image of God;<sup>8</sup> having the seeds of repentance unto life, and all other saving graces, put into their hearts,<sup>9</sup> and those graces so stirred up, increased, and strengthened,<sup>10</sup> as that they more and more die unto sin, and rise unto newness of life.<sup>11</sup>

Q. 76. What is repentance unto life?

A. Repentance unto life is a saving grace,<sup>12</sup> wrought in the heart of a sinner by the Spirit<sup>13</sup> and Word of God,<sup>14</sup> whereby, out of the sight and sense, not only of the danger,<sup>15</sup> but also of the filthiness and odiousness of his sins,<sup>16</sup> and upon the apprehension of God's mercy in Christ to such as are penitent,<sup>17</sup> he so grieves for<sup>18</sup> and hates his sins,<sup>19</sup> as that he turns from them all to God,<sup>20</sup> purposing and

Q. 77. Wherein do justification and sanctification differ?

A. Although sanctification be inseparably joined with justification,<sup>2</sup> yet they differ, in that God in justification imputes the righteousness of Christ;<sup>3</sup> in sanctification his Spirit infuses grace, and enables to the exercise thereof;<sup>4</sup> in the former, sin is pardoned;<sup>5</sup> in the other, it is subdued.<sup>6</sup> the one does equally free all believers from the revenging wrath of God, and that perfectly in this life, that they never fall into condemnation;<sup>7</sup> the other is neither equal in all,<sup>8</sup> nor in this life perfect in any,<sup>9</sup> but growing up to perfection.<sup>10</sup>

Q. 78. Whence arises the imperfection of sanctification in believers?

A. The imperfection of sanctification in believers arises from the remnants of sin abiding in every part of them, and the perpetual lusting of the flesh against the spirit; whereby they are often foiled with temptations, and fall into many sins,<sup>11</sup> are hindered in all their spiritual services,<sup>12</sup> and their best works are imperfect and defiled in the sight of God.<sup>13</sup>

Q. 79. May not true believers, by reason of their imperfections, and the many temptations and sins they are overtaken with, fall away from the state of grace?

A. True believers, by reason of the unchangeable love of God,<sup>14</sup> and his decree and covenant to give them perseverance,<sup>15</sup> their inseparable union with Christ,<sup>16</sup> his continual intercession for them,<sup>17</sup> and the

Q. 80. Can true believers be infallibly assured that they are in the estate of grace, and that they shall persevere therein unto salvation?

A. Such as truly believe in Christ, and endeavour to walk in all good conscience before him,<sup>4</sup> may, without extraordinary revelation, by faith grounded upon the truth of God's promises, and by the Spirit enabling them to discern in themselves those graces to which the promises of life are made,<sup>5</sup> and bearing witness with their spirits that they are the children of God,<sup>6</sup> be infallibly assured that they are in the estate of grace, and shall persevere therein unto salvation.<sup>7</sup>

Q. 81. Are all true believers at all times assured of their present being in the estate of grace, and that they shall be saved?

A. Assurance of grace and salvation not being of the essence of faith,<sup>8</sup> true believers may wait long before they obtain it;<sup>9</sup> and, after the enjoyment thereof, may have it weakened and intermitted, through manifold distempers [afflictions], sins, temptations, and desertions;<sup>10</sup> yet they are never left without such a presence and support of the Spirit of God as keeps them from sinking into utter despair.<sup>11</sup>

Q. 83. What is the communion in glory with Christ which the members of the invisible church enjoy in this life?

A. The members of the invisible church have communicated to them in this life the firstfruits of glory with Christ, as they are members of him their head, and so in him are interested in that glory which he is fully possessed of;<sup>4</sup> and, as an earnest [pledge] thereof, enjoy the sense of God's love;<sup>5</sup> peace of conscience, joy in the Holy Spirit, and hope of glory;<sup>6</sup> as, on the contrary, sense of God's revenging wrath, horror of conscience, and a fearful expectation of judgment, are to the wicked the beginning of their torments which they shall endure after death.<sup>7</sup>

Q. 84. Shall all men die?

A. Death being threatened as the wages of sin,<sup>8</sup> it is appointed unto all men once to die;<sup>9</sup> for that all have sinned.<sup>10</sup>

Q. 85. Death, being the wages of sin, why are not the righteous delivered from death, seeing all their sins are forgiven in Christ?

A. The righteous shall be delivered from death itself at the last day, and even in death are delivered from the sting and curse of it;<sup>11</sup> so that, although they die, yet it is out of God's love,<sup>12</sup> to free them perfectly from sin and misery,<sup>13</sup> and to make them capable of further communion with Christ in glory, which they then enter upon.<sup>14</sup> invisible church enjoy immediately after death is, in that their souls are then made perfect in holiness,<sup>1</sup> and received into the highest heavens,<sup>2</sup> where they behold the face of God in light and glory,<sup>3</sup> waiting for the full redemption of their bodies,<sup>4</sup> which even in death continue united to Christ,<sup>5</sup> and rest in their graves as in their beds,<sup>6</sup> till at the last day they be again united to their souls.<sup>7</sup> Whereas the souls of the wicked are at their death cast into hell, where they remain in torments and utter darkness, and their bodies kept in their graves, as in their prisons, till the resurrection and judgment of the great day.<sup>8</sup>

Q. 87. What are we to believe concerning the resurrection?

A. We are to believe that at the last day there shall be a general resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust;<sup>9</sup> when they that are then found alive shall in a moment be changed; and the self-same bodies of the dead which were laid in the grave, being then again united to their souls forever, shall be raised up by the power of Christ.<sup>10</sup> The bodies of the just, by the Spirit of Christ, and by virtue of his resurrection as their head, shall be raised in power, spiritual, incorruptible, and made like to his glorious body;<sup>11</sup> and the bodies of the wicked shall be raised up in dishonour by him, as an offended judge.<sup>12</sup>

Q. 88. What shall immediately follow after the resurrection?

A. Immediately after the resurrection shall follow the general and final judgment of angels and men;<sup>13</sup> the day and hour whereof no man knows, that all may watch and pray, and be ever ready for the coming of the Lord.<sup>14</sup>

Q. 89. What shall be done to the wicked at the day of judgment?

A. At the day of judgment, the wicked shall be set on Christ's left hand,<sup>1</sup> and, upon clear evidence, and full conviction of their own consciences,<sup>2</sup> shall have the fearful but just sentence of condemnation pronounced against them;<sup>3</sup> and thereupon shall be cast out from the favourable presence of God, and the glorious fellowship with Christ, his saints, and all his holy angels, into hell, to be punished with unspeakable torments, both of body and soul, with the devil and his angels forever.<sup>4</sup>

Q. 90. What shall be done to the righteous at the day of judgment?

A. At the day of judgment, the righteous, being caught up to Christ in the clouds,<sup>5</sup> shall be set on his right hand, and there openly acknowledged and acquitted,<sup>6</sup> shall join with him in the judging of reprobate angels and men,<sup>7</sup> and shall be received into heaven,<sup>8</sup> where they shall be fully and forever freed from all sin and misery;<sup>9</sup> filled with inconceivable joys,<sup>10</sup> made perfectly holy and happy both in body and soul, in the company of innumerable saints and holy angels,<sup>11</sup> but especially in the immediate vision and fruition of God the Father, of our Lord Jesus Christ, and of the Holy Spirit, to all eternity.<sup>12</sup> And this is the perfect and full communion, which the members of the invisible church shall enjoy with Christ in glory, at the resurrection and day of judgment.

Having Seen What the Scriptures Principally Teach Us To Believe Concerning God,
It Follows to Consider What They Require as the Duty of Man

Q. 91. What is the duty which God requires of man?

A. The duty which God requires of man, is obedience to his revealed will.<sup>1</sup>

Q. 92. What did God at first reveal unto man as the rule of his obedience?

A. The rule of obedience revealed to Adam in the estate of innocence, and to all mankind in him, besides a special command not to eat of the fruit of the tree knowledge of good and evil, was the moral law.<sup>2</sup>

Q. 93. What is the moral law?

A. The moral law is the declaration of the will of God to mankind, directing and binding everyone to personal, perfect, and perpetual conformity and obedience thereunto, in the frame and disposition of the whole man, soul and body,<sup>3</sup> and in performance of all those duties of holiness and righteousness which he owes to God and man;<sup>4</sup> promising life upon the fulfilling, and threatening death upon the breach of it.<sup>5</sup>

Q. 94. Is there any use of the moral law to man since the fall?

A. Although no man, since the fall, can attain to righteousness and life by the moral law;<sup>6</sup> yet there is great use thereof, as well common to all men, as peculiar either to the unregenerate, or the regenerate.<sup>7</sup>

Q. 95. Of what use is the moral law to all men?

A. The moral law is of use to all men, to inform them of the holy nature and the will of God,<sup>8</sup> and of their duty, binding them to walk accordingly;<sup>9</sup> to convince them of their disability to keep it, and of

Q. 96. What particular use is there of the moral law to unregenerate men?

A. The moral law is of use to unregenerate men, to awaken their consciences to flee from wrath to come,<sup>5</sup> and to drive them to Christ;<sup>6</sup> or, upon their continuance in the estate and way of sin, to leave them inexcusable,<sup>7</sup> and under the curse thereof.<sup>8</sup>

Q. 97. What special use is there of the moral law to the regenerate?

A. Although they that are regenerate, and believe in Christ, be delivered from the moral law as a covenant of works,<sup>9</sup> so as thereby they are neither justified<sup>10</sup> nor condemned;<sup>11</sup> yet, besides the general uses thereof common to them with all men, it is of special use, to show them how much they are bound to Christ for his fulfilling it, and enduring the curse thereof in their stead, and for their good;<sup>12</sup> and thereby to provoke them to more thankfulness,<sup>13</sup> and to express the same in their greater care to conform themselves thereunto as the rule of their obedience.<sup>14</sup>

Q. 98. Where is the moral law summarily comprehended?

A. The moral law is summarily comprehended in the ten commandments, which were delivered by the voice of God upon Mount Sinai, and written by him in two tables of stone;<sup>15</sup> and are recorded in the twentieth chapter of Exodus. The four first

Q. 99. What rules are to be observed for the right understanding of the Ten Commandments?

A. For the right understanding of the Ten Commandments, these rules are to be observed:

1. That the law is perfect, and binds everyone to full conformity in the whole man unto the righteousness thereof, and unto entire obedience forever; so as to require the utmost perfection of every duty, and to forbid the least degree of every sin.<sup>2</sup>
2. That it is spiritual, and so reaches the understanding, will, affections, and all other powers of the soul; as well as words, works, and gestures.<sup>3</sup>
3. That one and the same thing, in divers [various] respects, is required or forbidden in several commandments.<sup>4</sup>
4. That as, where a duty is commanded, the contrary sin is forbidden;<sup>5</sup> and, where a sin is forbidden, the contrary duty is commanded;<sup>6</sup> so, where a promise is annexed, the contrary threatening is included;<sup>7</sup> and, where a threatening is annexed, the contrary promise is included.<sup>8</sup>
5. That what God forbids, is at no time to be done;<sup>9</sup> what he commands, is always our duty;<sup>10</sup> and yet every particular duty is not to be done at all times.<sup>11</sup>
6. That under one sin or duty, all of the same kind are forbidden or commanded; together with all the causes, means, occasions, and appearances thereof, and provocations thereunto.<sup>12</sup>
7. That what is forbidden or commanded to ourselves, we are bound,

Q. 100. What special things are we to consider in the Ten Commandments?

- A. We are to consider in the Ten Commandments, the preface, the substance of the commandments themselves, and several reasons annexed to some of them, the more to enforce them.

Q. 101. What is the preface to the Ten Commandments?

- A. The preface to the Ten Commandments is contained in these words, I am the Lord your God, who has brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery.<sup>4</sup> Wherein God manifests his sovereignty, as being JEHOVAH [covenant Lord], the eternal, immutable, and almighty God;<sup>5</sup> having his being in and of himself,<sup>6</sup> and giving being to all his words<sup>7</sup> and works;<sup>8</sup> and that he is a God in covenant, as with Israel of old, so with all his people;<sup>9</sup> who, as he brought them out of their bondage in Egypt, so he delivers us from our spiritual thralldom [captivity];<sup>10</sup> and that therefore we are bound to take him for our God alone, and to keep all his commandments.<sup>11</sup>

Q. 102. What is the sum of the four commandments which contain our duty to God?

- A. The sum of the four commandments containing our duty to God is, to love the Lord our God with all our heart, and with all our soul, and with all our strength, and with all our mind.<sup>12</sup>

Q. 103. Which is the first commandment?

- A. The first commandment is, You shall have no other gods before me.<sup>13</sup>

Q. 104. What are the duties required in the first commandment?

A. The duties required in the first commandment are, the knowing and acknowledging of God to be the only true God, and our God;<sup>1</sup> and to worship and glorify him accordingly,<sup>2</sup> by thinking,<sup>3</sup> meditating,<sup>4</sup> remembering,<sup>5</sup> highly esteeming,<sup>6</sup> honouring,<sup>7</sup> adoring,<sup>8</sup> choosing,<sup>9</sup> loving,<sup>10</sup> desiring,<sup>11</sup> fearing of him;<sup>12</sup> believing him;<sup>13</sup> trusting<sup>14</sup> hoping,<sup>15</sup> delighting,<sup>16</sup> rejoicing in him;<sup>17</sup> being zealous for him;<sup>18</sup> calling upon him, giving all praise and thanks,<sup>19</sup> and yielding all obedience and submission to him with the whole man;<sup>20</sup> being careful in all things to please him,<sup>21</sup> and sorrowful when in anything he is offended;<sup>22</sup> and walking humbly with him.<sup>23</sup>

Q. 105. What are the sins forbidden in the first commandment?

A. The sins forbidden in the first commandment are, atheism, in denying or not having a God;<sup>24</sup> idolatry, in having or worshipping more gods than one, or any with or instead of the true God;<sup>25</sup> the not having and avouching him for God, and our God;<sup>26</sup> the omission or neglect of anything due to him, required in this commandment;<sup>27</sup>

Q. 106. What are we specially taught by these words before me in the first commandment?

A. These words before me or before my face, in the first commandment, teach us, that God, who sees all things, takes special notice of, and is much displeased with, the sin of having any other God: that so it may be an argument to dissuade from it, and to aggravate it as a most impudent provocation:<sup>11</sup> as also to persuade us to do as in his sight, whatever we do in his service.<sup>12</sup>

A. The second commandment is, You shall not make for yourself a carved image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth. You shall not bow down to them or serve them: for I the Lord your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me; and showing steadfast love to thousands of those who love me, and keep my commandments.<sup>13</sup>

Q. 112. What is required in the third commandment?

A. The third commandment requires, that the name of God, his titles, attributes,<sup>2</sup> ordinances,<sup>3</sup> the Word,<sup>4</sup> sacraments,<sup>5</sup> prayer,<sup>6</sup> oaths,<sup>7</sup> vows,<sup>8</sup> lots,<sup>9</sup> his work,<sup>10</sup> and whatsoever else there is whereby he makes himself known, be holily and reverently used in thought,<sup>11</sup> meditation,<sup>12</sup> word,<sup>13</sup> and writing;<sup>14</sup> by a holy profession,<sup>15</sup> and answerable conversation,<sup>16</sup> to the glory of God,<sup>17</sup> and the good of ourselves,<sup>18</sup> and others.<sup>19</sup>

Q. 113. What are the sins forbidden in the third commandment?

A. The sins forbidden in the third commandment are, the not using of God's name as is required;<sup>20</sup> and the abuse of it in an ignorant,<sup>21</sup> vain,<sup>22</sup> irreverent, profane,<sup>23</sup> superstitious<sup>24</sup> or wicked mentioning or otherwise using his titles, attributes,<sup>25</sup> ordinances,<sup>26</sup> or works,<sup>27</sup>

Q. 114. What reasons are annexed to the third commandment?

A. The reasons annexed to the third commandment, in these words, The Lord your God, and, For the Lord will not hold him guiltless who takes his name in vain,<sup>1</sup> are, because he is the Lord and our God, therefore his name is not to be profaned, or any way abused by us;<sup>2</sup> especially because he will be so far from acquitting and sparing the transgressors of this commandment, as that he will not suffer them to escape his righteous judgment;<sup>3</sup> albeit many such escape the censures and punishments of men.<sup>4</sup>

Q. 115. Which is the fourth commandment?

A. The fourth commandment is, Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. Six days you shall labour, and do all your work; but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the Lord your God: on it you shall not do any work, you, nor your son, nor your daughter, your male-servant, nor your female servant, nor your cattle, nor the sojourner who is within your gates. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested on the seventh day. Therefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath-day and made it holy.<sup>5</sup>

Q. 116. What is required in the fourth commandment?

A. The fourth commandment requires of all men the sanctifying or keeping holy to God such set times as he has appointed in his Word, expressly one whole day in seven; which was the seventh from the beginning of the world to the resurrection of Christ, and the first day of the week ever since, and so to continue to the end of the world; which is the Christian Sabbath,<sup>6</sup> and in the New Testament called The Lord's Day.<sup>7</sup>

Q. 117. How is the Sabbath or the Lord's Day to be sanctified?

A. The Sabbath or Lord's Day is to be sanctified by a holy resting all the day,<sup>8</sup> not only from such works as are at all times sinful, but even from such worldly employments and recreations as are on other days lawful;<sup>1</sup> and making it our delight to spend the whole time (except so much of it as is to be taken up in works of necessity and mercy)<sup>2</sup> in the public and private exercises of God's worship;<sup>3</sup> and, to that end, we are to prepare our hearts, and with such foresight, diligence, and moderation, to dispose and seasonably dispatch our worldly business, that we may be the more free and fit for the duties of that day.<sup>4</sup>

Q. 118. Why is the charge of keeping the Sabbath more specially directed to governors of families, and other superiors?

A. The charge of keeping the Sabbath is more specially directed to governors of families, and other superiors, because they are bound not only to keep it themselves, but to see that it be observed by all those that are under their charge; and because they are prone often to hinder them by employments of their own.<sup>5</sup>

Q. 119. What are the sins forbidden in the fourth commandment?

A. The sins forbidden in the fourth commandment are, all omissions of the duties required,<sup>6</sup> all careless, negligent, and unprofitable performing of them, and being weary of them;<sup>7</sup> all profaning the day by idleness, and doing that which is in itself sinful;<sup>8</sup> and by all needless works, words, and thoughts, about our worldly employments and recreations.<sup>9</sup>

Q. 120. What are the reasons annexed to the fourth commandment, the more to enforce it?

A. The reasons annexed to the fourth commandment, the more to enforce it, are taken from the equity of it, God allowing us six days of seven for our own affairs, and reserving but one for himself in these words, Six days you shall labour, and do all your work:<sup>10</sup> from God's challenging a special propriety in that day, The seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord your God:<sup>11</sup> from the example of God, who in six days made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: and from that blessing which God put upon that day, not only in sanctifying it to be a day for his service, but in ordaining it to be a means of blessing to us in our sanctifying it; Therefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath day, and made it holy.<sup>1</sup>

Q. 121. Why is the word Remember set in the beginning of the fourth commandment?

A. The word Remember is set in the beginning of the fourth commandment,<sup>2</sup> partly, because of the great benefit of remembering it, we being thereby helped in our preparation to keep it,<sup>3</sup> and, in keeping it, better to keep all the rest of the commandments,<sup>4</sup> and to continue a thankful remembrance of the two great benefits of creation and redemption, which contain a short abridgment of religion;<sup>5</sup> and partly, because we are very ready to forget it,<sup>6</sup> for that there is less light of nature for it,<sup>7</sup> and yet it restrains our natural liberty in things at other times lawful;<sup>8</sup> that it comes but once in seven days, and many worldly businesses come between, and too often take off our minds from thinking of it, either to prepare for it, or to sanctify it;<sup>9</sup> and that Satan with his instruments labours much to blot out the glory, and even the memory of it, to bring in all irreligion and impiety.<sup>10</sup>

Q. 122. What is the sum of the six commandments which contain our duty to man?

A. The sum of the six commandments which contain our duty to man, is, to love our neighbour as ourselves,<sup>11</sup> and to do to others what we would have them to do to us.<sup>12</sup>

Q. 123. Which is the fifth commandment?

A. The fifth commandment is, Honour your father and your mother:

Q. 124. Who are meant by father and mother in the fifth commandment?

A. By father and mother, in the fifth commandment, are meant, not only natural parents,<sup>2</sup> but all superiors in age<sup>3</sup> and gifts;<sup>4</sup> and especially such as, by God's ordinance, are over us in place of authority, whether in family,<sup>5</sup> church,<sup>6</sup> or commonwealth.<sup>7</sup>

Q. 125. Why are superiors styled father and mother?

A. Superiors are styled father and mother, both to teach them in all duties toward their inferiors, like natural parents, to express love and tenderness to them, according to their several relations;<sup>8</sup> and to work inferiors to a greater willingness and cheerfulness in performing their duties to their superiors, as to their parents.<sup>9</sup>

Q. 126. What is the general scope of the fifth commandment?

A. The general scope of the fifth commandment is, the performance of those duties which we mutually owe in our several relations, as inferiors [those under authority], superiors [those in authority], or equals.<sup>10</sup>

Q. 127. What is the honour that inferiors owe to their superiors?

A. The honour which inferiors owe to their superiors is, all due reverence in heart,<sup>11</sup> word,<sup>12</sup> and behaviour;<sup>13</sup> prayer and thanksgiving for them;<sup>14</sup> imitation of their virtues and graces;<sup>15</sup> willing obedience to their lawful commands and counsels;<sup>16</sup>

Q. 128. What are the sins of inferiors against their superiors?

A. The sins of inferiors against their superiors are, all neglect of the duties required toward them;<sup>7</sup> envying at,<sup>8</sup> contempt of,<sup>9</sup> and rebellion<sup>10</sup> against, their persons<sup>11</sup> and places,<sup>12</sup> in their lawful counsels,<sup>13</sup> commands, and corrections;<sup>14</sup> cursing, mocking<sup>15</sup> and all such refractory and scandalous carriage, as proves a shame and dishonour to them and their government.<sup>16</sup>

Q. 129. What is required of superiors towards their inferiors?

A. Q. 130. What are the sins of superiors?

- A. The sins of superiors are, besides the neglect of the duties required of them,<sup>7</sup> and inordinate seeking of themselves,<sup>8</sup> their own glory,<sup>9</sup> ease, profit, or pleasure;<sup>10</sup> commanding things unlawful,<sup>11</sup> or not in the power of inferiors to perform;<sup>12</sup> counselling,<sup>13</sup> encouraging,<sup>14</sup> or favouring them in that which is evil;<sup>15</sup> dissuading, discouraging, or discountenancing them in that which is good;<sup>16</sup> correcting them unduly;<sup>17</sup> careless exposing, or leaving them to wrong, temptation, and danger;<sup>18</sup> provoking them to wrath;<sup>19</sup> or any way dishonouring themselves, or lessening their authority, by an unjust, indiscreet, rigorous, or remiss behaviour.<sup>20</sup>

Q. 131. What are the duties of equals?

- A. The duties of equals are, to regard the dignity and worth of each other,<sup>21</sup> in giving honour to go one before another;<sup>22</sup> and to rejoice in each others' gifts and advancement, as their own.<sup>23</sup>

Q. 146. Which is the tenth commandment?

A. The tenth commandment is, You shall not covet your neighbour's house, you shall not covet your neighbour's wife, nor his male servant, nor his female servant, nor his ox, nor his donkey, nor anything that is your neighbour's.<sup>2</sup>

Q. 147. What are the duties required in the tenth commandment?

A. The duties required in the tenth commandment are, such a full contentment with our own condition,<sup>3</sup> and such a charitable frame of the whole soul toward our neighbour, as that all our inward motions and affections touching him, tend unto, and further all that good which is his.<sup>4</sup>

Q. 148. What are the sins forbidden in the tenth commandment?

A. The sins forbidden in the tenth commandment are discontentment with our own estate;<sup>5</sup> envying<sup>6</sup> and grieving at the good of our neighbour,<sup>7</sup> together with all inordinate motions and affections to anything that is his.<sup>8</sup>

Q. 149. Is any man able perfectly to keep the commandments of God?

A. No man is able, either of himself,<sup>9</sup> or by any grace received in this life, perfectly to keep the commandments of God;<sup>10</sup> but does daily break them in thought,<sup>11</sup> word, and deed.<sup>12</sup>

Q. 150. Are all transgressions of the law of God equally heinous in themselves, and in the sight of God?

A. All transgressions of the law of God are not equally heinous; but some sins in themselves, and by reason of several aggravations, are more heinous in the sight of God than others.<sup>1</sup>

Q. 151. What are those aggravations that make some sins more heinous than others?

A. Sins receive their aggravations,

1. From the persons offending<sup>2</sup> if they be of riper age,<sup>3</sup> greater experience or grace,<sup>4</sup> eminent for profession,<sup>5</sup> gifts,<sup>6</sup> place,<sup>7</sup> office,<sup>8</sup> guides to others,<sup>9</sup> and whose example is likely to be followed by others.<sup>10</sup>

Q. 152. What does every sin deserve at the hands of God?

A. Every sin, even the least, being against the sovereignty,<sup>2</sup> goodness,<sup>3</sup> and holiness of God,<sup>4</sup> and against his righteous law,<sup>5</sup> deserves his wrath and curse,<sup>6</sup> both in this life,<sup>7</sup> and that which is to come;<sup>8</sup> and cannot be expiated but by the blood of Christ.<sup>9</sup>

Q. 153. What does God require of us, that we may escape his wrath and curse due to us by reason of the transgression of the law?

A. That we may escape the wrath and curse of God due to us by reason of the transgression of the law, he requires of us repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ,<sup>10</sup> and the diligent use of the outward means whereby Christ communicates to us the benefits of his mediation.<sup>11</sup>

Q. 154. What are the outward means whereby Christ communicates to us the benefits of his mediation?

A. The outward and ordinary means whereby Christ communicates to his church the benefits of his mediation, are all his ordinances; especially the Word, sacraments, and prayer; all which are made effectual to the elect for their salvation.<sup>12</sup>

Q. 155. How is the Word made effectual to salvation?

A. The Spirit of God makes the reading, but especially the preaching of the Word, an effectual means of enlightening,<sup>13</sup> convincing, and humbling sinners;<sup>14</sup> of driving them out of themselves, and drawing

Q. 156. Is the Word of God to be read by all?

A. Although all are not to be permitted to read the Word publicly to the congregation,<sup>7</sup> yet all sorts of people are bound to read it apart by themselves,<sup>8</sup> and with their families;<sup>9</sup> to which end, the Holy Scriptures are to be translated out of the original into vulgar [common] languages.<sup>10</sup>

Q. 157. How is the Word of God to be read?

A. The Holy Scriptures are to be read with a high and reverent esteem of them;<sup>11</sup> with a firm persuasion that they are the very Word of God,<sup>12</sup> and that he only can enable us to understand them;<sup>13</sup> with desire to know, believe, and obey the will of God revealed in them;<sup>14</sup> with diligence,<sup>15</sup> and attention to the matter and scope of them;<sup>16</sup> with meditation,<sup>17</sup> application,<sup>18</sup> self-denial,<sup>19</sup> and prayer.<sup>20</sup>

Q. 158. By whom is the Word of God to be preached?

A. The Word of God is to be preached only by such as are sufficiently gifted,<sup>21</sup> and also duly approved and called to that office.<sup>22</sup>

Q. 159. How is the Word of God to be preached by those that are called thereunto?

A. They that are called to labour in the ministry of the Word, are to preach sound doctrine,<sup>1</sup> diligently,<sup>2</sup> in season and out of season;<sup>3</sup> plainly,<sup>4</sup> not in the enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit, and of power;<sup>5</sup> faithfully,<sup>6</sup> making known the whole counsel of God;<sup>7</sup> wisely,<sup>8</sup> applying themselves to the necessities and capacities of the hearers;<sup>9</sup> zealously,<sup>10</sup> with fervent love to God<sup>11</sup> and the souls of his people;<sup>12</sup> sincerely,<sup>13</sup> aiming at his glory,<sup>14</sup> and their conversion,<sup>15</sup> edification,<sup>16</sup> and salvation.<sup>17</sup>

Q. 161. How do the sacraments become effectual means of salvation?

A. The sacraments become effectual means of salvation, not by any power in themselves, or any virtue derived from the piety or intention of him by whom they are administered, but only by the working of the Holy Spirit, and the blessing of Christ, by whom they are instituted.<sup>5</sup>

Q. 162. What is a sacrament?

A. A sacrament is a holy ordinance instituted by Christ in his church,<sup>6</sup> to signify, seal, and exhibit<sup>7</sup> unto those that are within the covenant of grace,<sup>8</sup> the benefits of his mediation;<sup>9</sup> to strengthen and increase their faith, and all other graces;<sup>10</sup> to oblige them to obedience;<sup>11</sup> to testify and cherish their love and communion one with another;<sup>12</sup> and to distinguish them from those that are without.<sup>13</sup>

Q. 163. What are the parts of a sacrament?

A. The parts of the sacrament are two; the one an outward and sensible sign, used according to Christ's own appointment; the other an inward and spiritual grace thereby signified.<sup>14</sup>

Q. 164. How many sacraments has Christ instituted in his church under the New Testament?

A. Under the New Testament Christ has instituted in his church only two sacraments; baptism and the Lord's supper.<sup>15</sup>

Q. 165. What is baptism?

A. Baptism is a sacrament of the New Testament, wherein Christ has

Q. 166. Unto whom is baptism to be administered?

A. Baptism is not to be administered to any that are out of the visible church, and so strangers from the covenant of promise, till they profess their faith in Christ, and obedience to him,<sup>9</sup> but infants descending from parents, either both, or but one of them, professing faith in Christ, and obedience to him, are in that respect within the covenant, and to be baptised.<sup>10</sup>

Q. 167. How is our baptism to be improved by us?

A. The needful but much neglected duty of improving our baptism, is to be performed by us all our life long, especially in the time of temptation, and when we are present at the administration of it to others;<sup>11</sup> by serious and thankful consideration of the nature of it, and of the ends for which Christ instituted it, the privileges and benefits conferred and sealed thereby, and our solemn vow made therein;<sup>12</sup> by being humbled for our sinful defilement, our falling short of, and walking contrary to, the grace of baptism, and our engagements;<sup>13</sup> by growing up to assurance of pardon of sin, and of all other blessings sealed to us in that sacrament;<sup>14</sup> by drawing strength from the death and resurrection of Christ, into whom we

Q. 168. What is the Lord's supper?

A. The Lord's supper is a sacrament of the New Testament,<sup>6</sup> wherein, by giving and receiving bread and wine according to the appointment of Jesus Christ, his death is showed forth; and they that worthily communicate feed upon his body and blood, to their spiritual nourishment and growth in grace;<sup>7</sup> have their union and communion with him confirmed;<sup>8</sup> testify and renew their thankfulness,<sup>9</sup> and engagement to God,<sup>10</sup> and their mutual love and fellowship each with the other, as members of the same mystical body.<sup>11</sup>

Q. 169. How has Christ appointed bread and wine to be given and received in the sacrament of the Lord's supper?

A. Christ has appointed the ministers of his Word, in the administration of this sacrament of the Lord's supper, to set apart the bread and wine from common use, by the word of institution, thanksgiving, and prayer; to take and break the bread, and to give both the bread and the wine to the communicants: who are, by the same appointment, to take and eat the bread, and to drink the wine, in thankful remembrance that the body of Christ was broken and given, and his blood shed, for them.<sup>12</sup>

Q. 170. How do they that worthily communicate in the Lord's supper feed upon the body and blood of Christ therein?

Q. 171. How are they that receive the sacrament of the Lord's supper to prepare themselves before they come unto it?

A. They that receive the sacrament of the Lord's supper are, before they come, to prepare themselves thereunto, by examining themselves<sup>5</sup> of their being in Christ,<sup>6</sup> of their sins and wants;<sup>7</sup> of the truth and measure of their knowledge,<sup>8</sup> faith,<sup>9</sup> repentance;<sup>10</sup> love to God and the brethren,<sup>11</sup> charity to all men,<sup>12</sup> forgiving those that have done them wrong;<sup>13</sup> of their desires after Christ,<sup>14</sup> and of their new obedience;<sup>15</sup> and by renewing the exercise of these graces,<sup>16</sup> by serious meditation,<sup>17</sup> and fervent prayer.<sup>18</sup> has it, if he be duly affected with the apprehension of the want of it,<sup>1</sup> and un-feignedly desires to be found in Christ,<sup>2</sup> and to depart from iniquity:<sup>3</sup> in which case (because promises are made, and this sacrament is appointed, for the relief even of weak and doubting Christians)<sup>4</sup> he is to bewail his unbelief;<sup>5</sup> and labour to have his doubts resolved;<sup>6</sup> and, so doing, he may and ought to come to the Lord's supper, that he may be further strengthened.<sup>7</sup>

Q. 173. May any who profess the faith, and desire to come to the Lord's supper, be kept from it?

A. Q. 174. What is required of them that receive the sacrament of the Lord's supper in the time of the administration of it?

A. It is required of them that receive the sacrament of the Lord's supper, that, during the time of the administration of it, with all holy reverence and attention they wait upon God in that ordinance,<sup>10</sup> diligently observe the sacramental elements and actions,<sup>11</sup> heedfully discern the Lord's body,<sup>12</sup> and affectionately meditate on his death and sufferings,<sup>13</sup> and thereby stir up themselves to a vigorous exercise of their graces;<sup>14</sup> in judging themselves,<sup>15</sup> and sorrowing for sin;<sup>16</sup> in earnest hungering and thirsting after Christ,<sup>17</sup> feeding on him by

Q. 175. What is the duty of Christians, after they have received the sacrament of the Lord's supper?

A. The duty of Christians, after they have received the sacrament of the Lord's supper, is seriously to consider how they have behaved themselves therein, and with what success;<sup>8</sup> if they find quickening [restoration] and comfort, to bless God for it,<sup>9</sup> beg the continuance of it,<sup>10</sup> watch against relapses,<sup>11</sup> fulfil their vows,<sup>12</sup> and encourage themselves to a frequent attendance on that ordinance;<sup>13</sup> but if they find no present benefit, more exactly to review their preparation to, and carriage at, the sacrament;<sup>14</sup> in both which, if they can approve themselves to God and their own consciences, they are to wait for the fruit of it in due time;<sup>15</sup> but, if they see they have failed in either, they are to be humbled,<sup>16</sup> and to attend upon it afterwards with more care and diligence.<sup>17</sup>

Q. 176. Wherein do the sacraments of baptism and the Lord's supper agree?

Q. 177. Wherein do the sacraments of baptism and the Lord's supper differ?

A. The sacraments of baptism and the Lord's supper differ, in that baptism is to be administered but once, with water, to be a sign and seal of our regeneration and ingrafting into Christ,<sup>3</sup> and that even to infants;<sup>4</sup> whereas the Lord's supper is to be administered often, in the elements of bread and wine, to represent and exhibit Christ as spiritual nourishment to the soul,<sup>5</sup> and to confirm our continuance and growth in him,<sup>6</sup> and that only to such as are of years and ability to examine themselves.<sup>7</sup>

Q. 178. What is prayer?

A. Prayer is an offering up of our desires unto God,<sup>8</sup> in the name of Christ,<sup>9</sup> by the help of his Spirit;<sup>10</sup> with confession of our sins,<sup>11</sup> and thankful acknowledgment of his mercies.<sup>12</sup>

Q. 179. Are we to pray unto God only?

Q. 180. What is it to pray in the name of Christ?

A. To pray in the name of Christ is, in obedience to his command, and in confidence on his promises, to ask mercy for his sake;<sup>1</sup> not by bare mentioning of his name,<sup>2</sup> but by drawing our encouragement to pray, and our boldness, strength, and hope of acceptance in prayer, from Christ and his mediation.<sup>3</sup>

Q. 181. Why are we to pray in the name of Christ?

A. The sinfulness of man, and his distance from God by reason thereof, being so great, as that we can have no access into his presence without a mediator;<sup>4</sup> and there being none in heaven or earth appointed to, or fit for, that glorious work but Christ alone,<sup>5</sup> we are to pray in no other name but his only.<sup>6</sup>

Q. 182. How does the Spirit help us to pray?

A. We not knowing what to pray for as we ought, the Spirit helps our infirmities, by enabling us to understand both for whom, and what, and how prayer is to be made; and by working and quickening in our hearts (although not in all persons, nor at all times, in the same measure) those apprehensions, affections, and graces which are requisite for the right performance of that duty.<sup>7</sup>

Q. 183. For whom are we to pray?

A. We are to pray for the whole church of Christ upon earth;<sup>8</sup> for magistrates,<sup>9</sup> and ministers;<sup>10</sup> for ourselves,<sup>11</sup> our brethren,<sup>12</sup> yea, our enemies;<sup>13</sup> and for all sorts of men living,<sup>14</sup> or that shall live hereafter;<sup>1</sup> but not for the dead,<sup>2</sup> nor for those that are known to have sinned the sin unto death.<sup>3</sup>

Q. 184. For what things are we to pray?

A. We are to pray for all things tending to the glory of God,<sup>4</sup> the welfare of the church,<sup>5</sup> our own<sup>6</sup> or others', good;<sup>7</sup> but not for anything that is unlawful.<sup>8</sup>

Q. 185. How are we to pray?

A. We are to pray with an awful apprehension of the majesty of God,<sup>9</sup> and deep sense of our own unworthiness,<sup>10</sup> necessities,<sup>11</sup> and sins;<sup>12</sup> with penitent,<sup>13</sup> thankful,<sup>14</sup> and enlarged hearts;<sup>15</sup> with understanding,<sup>16</sup> faith,<sup>17</sup> sincerity,<sup>18</sup> fervency,<sup>19</sup> love,<sup>20</sup> and perseverance,<sup>21</sup> waiting upon him,<sup>22</sup> with humble submission to his will.<sup>23</sup>

Q. 186. What rule has God given for our direction in the duty of prayer?

A. The whole Word of God is of use to direct us in the duty of prayer;<sup>24</sup> but the special rule of direction is that form of prayer which our Saviour Christ taught his disciples, commonly called The Lord's Prayer.<sup>25</sup>

Q. 187. How is the Lord's Prayer to be used?

A. The Lord's Prayer is not only for direction, as a pattern, according to which we are to make other prayers; but may also be used as a prayer, so that it be done with understanding, faith, reverence, and other graces necessary to the right performance of the duty of prayer.<sup>1</sup>

Q. 188. Of how many parts does the Lord's Prayer consist?

A. The Lord's Prayer consists of three parts; a preface, petitions, and a conclusion.

Q. 189. What does the preface of the Lord's Prayer teach us?

A. The preface of the Lord's Prayer (contained in these words, Our Father in heaven,)<sup>2</sup> teaches us, when we pray, to draw near to God with confidence of his fatherly goodness, and our interest therein;<sup>3</sup> with reverence, and all other childlike dispositions,<sup>4</sup> heavenly affections,<sup>5</sup> and due apprehensions of his sovereign power, majesty, and gracious condescension;<sup>6</sup> as also, to pray with and for others.<sup>7</sup>

Q. 190. What do we pray for in the first petition?

A. In the first petition, (which is, Hallowed be your name,)<sup>8</sup> acknowledging the utter inability and indisposition that is in ourselves and all men to honour God aright,<sup>9</sup> we pray, that God would by his grace enable and incline us and others to know, to acknowledge, and highly to esteem him,<sup>10</sup> his titles,<sup>11</sup> attributes,<sup>12</sup> ordinances, Word,<sup>13</sup> works, and whatsoever he is pleased to make himself known by;<sup>14</sup> and to glorify him in thought, word,<sup>15</sup> and

Q. 191. What do we pray for in the second petition?

A. In the second petition, (which is, Your kingdom come),<sup>8</sup> acknowledging ourselves and all mankind to be by nature under the dominion of sin and Satan,<sup>9</sup> we pray, that the kingdom of sin and Satan may be destroyed,<sup>10</sup> the gospel propagated throughout the world,<sup>11</sup> the Jews called,<sup>12</sup> the fullness of the Gentiles brought in;<sup>13</sup> the church furnished with all gospel-officers and ordinances,<sup>14</sup> purged from corruption,<sup>15</sup> countenanced and maintained by the civil magistrate;<sup>16</sup> that the ordinances of Christ may be purely dispensed, and made effectual to the converting of those that are yet in their sins, and the confirming, comforting, and building up of those that are already converted;<sup>17</sup> that Christ would rule in our hearts here,<sup>18</sup> and hasten the time of his second coming, and our reigning with him forever;<sup>19</sup> and that he would be pleased so to exercise the kingdom of his power in all the world, as may best conduce to these ends.<sup>20</sup>

Q. 194. What do we pray for in the fifth petition?

A. In the fifth petition, (which is, Forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors,)<sup>6</sup> acknowledging, that we and all others are guilty both of original and actual sin, and thereby become debtors to the justice of God; and that neither we, nor any other creature, can make the least satisfaction for that debt;<sup>7</sup> we pray for ourselves and others, that God of his free grace would, through the obedience and satisfaction of Christ, apprehended and applied by faith, acquit us both from the guilt and punishment of sin,<sup>8</sup> accept us in his Beloved;<sup>9</sup> continue his favour and grace to us,<sup>10</sup> pardon our daily failings,<sup>11</sup> and fill us with peace and joy, in giving us daily more and more assurance of forgiveness;<sup>12</sup> which we are the rather emboldened to ask, and encouraged to expect, when we have this testimony in ourselves, that we from the heart forgive others their offenses.<sup>13</sup>

Q. 195. What do we pray for in the sixth petition?

A. In the sixth petition, (which is, And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil,)<sup>14</sup> acknowledging, that the most wise, righteous, and gracious God, for divers [various] holy and just ends, may so order things, that we may be assaulted, foiled, and for a time led
